There are over one hundred hands employed on the Fair Grounds and buildings. The grading of the branch railroad is nearly completed, and soon everything will be in "ship shape."

Our friend Carter, of the Expositor seems to have been hit by Mr. F. H. Busbee, of Raleigh, who recently appeared for the plaintiff at the Special Term of Buncombe Court, in the great case of Woodfin vs. Carter. With no predilections in the case except a general inclination in favor of Editors, we kindly suggest to the defendant that his abuse or ridicule of counsel will recoil upon himself. It is only the "galled jade" that "winces,"

The brick business is one of the largest in the city of Raleigh, and still on the increase. The clay is as good here as anywhere in the United States. The pressed brick that is being used for the Williams, Upchurch & Thomas building, manufactured by Messrs. Cook and Stronach, are superior to any (so the workman say) that has ever been brought to the city from abroad or ever made here. We have a specimen on our table, taken from a pile of several hundred at the building.

FALSE RUMOR.—The rumor that Judge Watts and Tourgee would exchange circuits, as published by us a few days since, is incorrect. It originated doubtless from the fact that an exchange of two Courts by these Judges is proposed, but has not as yet been agreed upon. Judge Watts proposes to exchange his two Wake terms for Orange and Chatham.

the Society the Journal says : "The Society, therefore, under its present energetic management, begin-ning without a dollar, now owns property which cost it $32,000 (but really worth much more,) and carries a debt of but $8,000 at a low rate of interest."

THAT SERENADE. - If we had space adequate to the purpose, we "could a tale untold whose lightest word" would stir up that serenading party of young men, that employed the Italian string band a few nights since, and played two solid hours in the porch of a residence that had been deserted by its occupants for at least two months, and the young ladies to whom this compliments was intended were perhaps, hundreds of miles distant at a gay watering place, and in all probability threading the intricate mazes of the dance to the same tune, with some diamond ring fingered, white-cravated, dress-coated, split-haired, sweet-smelling, purse-proud fop. The silent tread and low whispers of the party up the gravelled walk of the front yard, and the noiseless entrance to the porch was successfully performed; not a sound was heard till the band opened with a favorite piece of the ladies, in quick time. The fourth piece had been played, when one of the party, who had as yet failed to observe the slightest indication but that the young ladies were yet fast asleep, called for something "quick, lively and loud." The Lee-Wynne-Brown Discussion Upon Wake County Financial Matters-The County Treasurer bas a

The following letter from the County Wynne controversy :

RALEIGH, August 2d, 1873. In a letter addressed by Sheriff T. F. Lee to the editors of the DAILY NEWS, dated August In, and published in the DAILY NEWS, of August In, and published in the DAILY NEWS, of August 2d, Sheriff Lee charges that a financial transaction took place between him and myseli in which I gave him a receipt for one thousand and fifteen dollars, (31,015.00). receiving from him a note for the amount, which note was subsequently taken up by him and the payment made by him to me of one thousand and fifteen dollars, ($1,015.00); that subsequently taken up by him that the receipt signed by me was for one hundred dollars ($100) only; that as I had rendered him a valuable service in giving the receipt was for one hundred doilars ($100) and make the balance good; that he made the promise and acknowledgement, but that I, having lent myself to a combination to effect his ruin, he decided to hold me to account for the action, and the amount of money involved.

This statement is, without qualification, untrue, and Sheriff Lee must have been aware that it was untrue when he penned TO THE CITIZENS OF WAKE COUNTY-untrue, and Sheriff Les must have been aware that it was untrue when he penned untrue, and Sheriff Lee must have been aware that it was untrue when he penned it.

A relation of the circumstances attending the matter I give below:

On the 6th of August, 1872, the Board of County Commissioners being then in session, Sheriff Lee came hurrledly to the office of the Era, and approaching me said that he was short of a hundred dollars, and asked me to give him a receipt for that amount, in order that he might at once go before the Board and secure the tax list. He said also that he had no time to write a note, but that if I would go to his office he would fix it up for me.

The fact that the amount was but one hundred dollars, and supposing that Sheriff Lee was a man of honor, seeing that he was in a hurry, and being myself pressed for time, I signed the receipt without hositation, and even without reading it, Sheriff Lee caught up the paper as soon as I had signed it and hurried away. Shortly after this, meeting Sheriff Lee on the street, I reminded him of the receipt and told him that I had no security for it. Sheriff Lee then said that he would instruct his deputy, Mr. Nowell, to pay it.

Calling afterwards on Mr. Nowell, that gentleman told me that Sheriff Lee had not mentioned the matter to him.

Sone time after this I called on Sheriff Lee for the payment of three thousand dollars ($3,000), which I held. The Sheriff told Mr. Nowell again reminded him of the one hundred dollars ($2000) in county vouchers and itse hundred dollars ($3000). Of the amount, I received twenty-six hundred dollars ($2000) in county vouchers and itse hundred dollars ($3000). Of the amount, I received twenty-six hundred dollars ($2000) in county vouchers and the hundred dollars. This I immediately denied, saying that Sheriff Lee held my receipt for only one hundred dollars.

Mr. Wynne, insisted that it was for one th

He then advised me to call Sheriff and see the receipt, and this I did.
Sheriff Lee was in the room and I demanded to see the receipt, but he said that he had destroyed it. Mr. Wynne told the Sheriff that he must either produce the recolpt or make the amount good, and being thus pressed, he produced the receipt, showed it to me, and then I found that it was for one thousand and fitteen dollars,

I told the Sheriff at once that I had sign-I told the Sheriff at once that I had sign-ed it under the impression that it was a receipt for one hundred dollars, ($100) and that there was evidently something wrong about the transaction. Sheriff Lee asked at once how it was that Sheriff Lee asked at once how it was that I supposed it to be for one hundred dollars ($100) when, on its face, it called for one thousand and fifteen dollars ($1,015).

I told him it was very strange, and that I had been decelved. Then he said that if I could make it appear to his mind that it was an error, I should lose nothing by it.

I replied that it was an error, and that so he would find it; that I had only received from him the one hundred dollars ($100), for which I had signed the receipt. After this Sheriff Lee met me on the street and said, which I had signed the receipt. After this Sheriff Lee met me on the street and said, that when he returned from Washington City, he would investigate the matter and make everything all right.

After his return from Washington, Sheriff Lee called to me from in front of the Court House, I being then on the opposite side of the street, and I went to him. Then he said that he had investigated the matter in his mind, and found that he was wrong and I was right; that he would make the matter right, and asked me to say nothing about it.

At the next subsequent meeting of the Board of County Commissioners, held April 10th, 1873, Sheriff Lee made an acknowledgement of which the following is the record as it appears on the minutes:

"The Sheriff informed the Board that upon examination he finds there is a mistake in the account of the receipt given by the n the amount of the receipt given by the county Treasurer to him. The sum should be $1,015,00, as expressed on its face." Such is a true and circumstantial history of the transaction and I leave it to the people of this County to judge of it.

I am sorry that I am compelled to make this statement, but a sense of justice to myself demands that it should be done. My relations with Sheriff Lee have always been of the most pleasant character, and the fact of my being at variance with him is therefore a source of deep regret.

Respectfully,

(Signed.) W. M. Brown,

County Treasurer.

ENTIRELY NEW .- A few years ago Judge Watts, whose farm is near Franklinton, discovered in his cotton field quite a number of stalks which contained double or twin bolis of cotton, each of the two being as large as ordinary single bolls. As a matter of experiment he preserved all the seed of this cotton, which he planted the next year in a lot apart from his other crop. Every stalk from this seed produced double bolls and a superior article of lint. Again he was careful in preserving every seed, and this season planted with t, the most of his crop of about 100 acres, manuring the land very heavily. Very strange to say, the stalk of this year produces a triple boll, and each of the bree were larger, on an average, than the original single boll. The boll germinates from the main stalk and branches in the largest profusion, and in some instances so heavily is the stalk aden with them, that propping the stalk with supports is necessary. An Eastern farmer that saw the field, and who gave us the information, says, never in his experience has he seen, read or heard of the like before. Judge Watts will have several of the stalks on exhibition at the State Fair when all can see this freak of nature.

THE BAPTIST REVIEW .- The first number of the Baptist Review, published at La Grange, is received. The Review is neatly gotten up, of convenient size and full ot good sound, sensible reading Creasurer is a continuation of the Lees matter. It is not only the organ of the sort of christans known as the Liberal Baptists, but is devoted to the general section in which it is located and the current outside news of the day.

In his salutary the editor says : "The Baptist Review, notwithstanding it is published in the obscure town of La Grange, in the good old State of North Carolina, is and will be something new in the Southern States. It is to my knowledge the only paper of its kind ever published south of Virginia. A free-communion, free salvation Baptist newspaper; and is, perhaps, the fourth or fifth undertaking of the kind in the United States."

"THE FAIR WEEK ADVERTISER."-The young gentlemen engaged in the above enterprise have concluded to enlarge the dimensions of the paper in consequence of the large number of dvertisements that are coming in. Parties desiring the insertion of cards will apply early this week, as the additional space is being rapidly taken.

Apply to either Messrs. C. H. Harper or
E. M. Uzzell, at the job department of the DAILY NEWS office.

PROFITABLE INVESTMENTS .- Persons from the country having surplus funds cannot do better than to buy city lots in Raleigh. Just think of it-good, high, dry lots at the old Fair Grounds, selling at from one hundred and fitty to two hundred and fifty dollars. These lots are richly worth double the money now, and will in five years be worth ten times what they now sell for.

THE STREETS .-- The street force under Commissioner Backalan commenced work on Person street.

The public well, on the corner of Peace street and Newbern avenue, is completed, and the large bank of dirt that blockaded the passage for vehicles is being removed. The work of repairing the pavement on Fayetteville street is progressing.

ALMOST A PUMPKIN!-Mr. T. H. Snow, of Swift Creek Township, brought into our office yesterday a tomato weighing two pounds and a quarter, full, He says (we hardly believe him,) that it is one of his little ones, and when any one in the county equals it, he will nibit a really good-sized tomato.

THE RALEIGH GRANGE.-This Grange met in this city yesterday. Quite a number of applications were received. The next meeting will be held on Saturday next, in Oak City Hall, at 11 o'clock a. m. Business of importance will be transacted.

SUNDAY ..

THE ELECTION, AUGUST 7TH The election to be held in this State on the first Thursday in August, on the constitutional amendments, is one of vast importance to our people.

It involves vital changes in the organic law of the State.

For the information of voters, we publish on our fourth page, and shall keep standing until the day of election, the clauses in the Constitution proposed to be altered, together with the eight amendments that passed the Legislature by the requisite constitutional majority, and which are to be submitted to the people for seventh day of August next.

All the amendments proposed are neces. sary and important, and those who favor them should not fail to vote.

THE MANNER OF VOTING. Constant inquiries are made of us concerning the manner of voting at the ensuing election in August.

For the information of voters, we have prepared the following instruc-

THERE MUST BE EIGHT BOXES. There are eight amendments in all. As they are to be voted on separately, the poll-holders must have EIGHT BOXES for the ballots. Each box should be labeled with a written or printed form, specifying the particular amendment to be voted on in said box.

THERE SHOULD BE EIGHT LABELS. The following are the eight forms which should be labeled on the eight boxes, respectively:

Amendment to the Constitution of North Carolina in relation to the Public Debt. Amendment to the Constitution of North Carolina in relation to the office of Superintendent of Public Works. of III. Amendment to the Constitution of or bus buVII. Amendment to the Constitution of North Carolina in relation to the Code duced. Commissioners, VIII. Amendment to the Constitution North Carolina in relation to Federal and other officers holding office.

STOLIAS SHT. LOSES have in The ballets should be written or printed, either with the words "For Amendment" or the words "Against Amendment."

Persons voting for the amendments should use the former, while those voting against the amendments the latter. THE POLLS.

Sheriffs must open the polls at the several election precincts in their respective counties on the seventh day of August, at eight o'clock in the morning and keep them open until seven o'clock in the afternoon.

WHO MAY VOTE. Every person qualified to vote according to the Constitution may vote for or against each amendment. RATIFICATION.

At the close of the polls, the judges of the election shall count out separate-ly the number of votes cast for and against each amendment. After all the returns from each county have been officially counted, it will then be ascertained which of the amendments have been ratified, if any, and which rejected. The amendments which receive a majority of the popular vote of the State will be duly ratified and become then a part of the Constitution of North Carolina. A part or all of them may be either ratified on rejected.

THE CHARLOTTE DEMOCRAT. One of the best conducted papers in North Carolina is the Charlotte Demo-

Its able Editor and Proprietor, Maj. W. J. Yates, may well congratulate himself upon the signal success he has achieved in the field of journalism.

On Monday last, the Democrat entered on its twenty-second volume. The first number was issued by its present owner, and it has never changed hands. Two or three years ago, the Democrat building was entirely consumed by fire -including everything of value belonging to the office-its presses, its type, its forms, and even its subscription books. In a few days it appeared Phonix-like from its ashes-in a new suit, brighter, fresher, more vigorous than ever.

One of the chief elements of success in the career of the Charlotte Democrat is its conservative and independent tone. By its firm, consistent, and straight-forward course, it has won the confidence of the community in which it is published, and is steadily growing in popular favor.

It has not allowed itself to be betrayed into extreme views on any subjects of public interest, but has been distinguished by its moderation and fairness to its political opponents, while it has been always decided and fearless in the expression of its own opinions.

The following extract is taken from the might say or think; but we also determined to settle in our own mind what was right or wrong and not be misled by popular clamor. In our earlier days we were pleased when our readers were pleased, but never excited or discouraged when our readers were displeased and, now, after many years experience, we are as firmly resolved as ever to pursue the same course we marked out twenty, years ago. But it is a great and gross mistake to suppose that any man can afford to be "independent" unless he heartily believes that he is right in opposing a popular movement or fa-toring an unpopular ore."

"DEMOCRATIC DEFALCA-

Some Radical journals have been rolling as a sweet morsel under their tongues the remarkable discovery that Hon. Jacob Thompson, of Mississippi, while Secretary of the Interior under Presiapproval or rejection, on Thursday. the amount af eight hundred and twenty thousand dollars.

We notice that the last number of the Union Republican, published at Winston, in this State, and dated July 31st, re-iterates this charge in blazing capitals, and with withering irony discusses the "purity and honesty of the Democratic Administration."

Now, that paper ought to have known that the charges against Mr. Thompson have been thoroughly investigated and proved groundless. He has been triumphantly vindicated. Yet in the face of that vindication the Republican continues to repeat the slander against an honest and worthy man.

Jacob Thompson is a man of integrity and high character. In their haste and anxiety to trump up charges against Democratic officials, as a set-off against the rascality and corruption of Radical office-holders, whose sins of defalcation are almost as numerous as the sands of the sea-shore, the Radical journals were greatly rejoiced at a single instance of "Democratic stealing" by a member of President Buchanan's Administration. After the charge has been proved to be false and unfounded, we need not express any surprise that it continues to be repeated. Radicalism is desperate and must resort to desperate means.

ELECTIVE JUDICIARY.

The Piedmont Press quotes and editorially endorses some seasonable comments from the New York Tribune, on the evil effects of the system of electing Judges by the people.

We had able, impartial and honest judicial officers in North Carolina until the elective judiciary system was intro-

Political Judges are a curse instead of a blessing to the community. Prejudice, not reason; self-interest, not justice; popular clamor, not duty, are some of the controlling elements which influence them in making up their decisions.

The consequence is, that our judiciary has tallen into contempt. Suitors have no confidence that they will receive justice in our Courts. There is general mistrust pervading their minds on account of the character of the men who occupy responsible positions in our judicial tribunals.

This situation of affairs is truly deplorable and alaiming. Where can the people find relief.

FEDERAL INTERFERENCE.

The nomination of Robert W. Hughes, as the Radical candidate for Governor of Virginia, by the Lynchburg State Convention, is a sad commentary on the interference of the national Government with local politics.

The President's organ, the Washington Chronicle, called for Hughes' nomination and the Radicals of Virginia responded amen.

The Conservative Convention assembles in Richmond on the sixth of August to nominate a candidate to defeat Hughes. Goode, Kemper and Withers are the most prominent names mentioned for the distinguished honor. We have a partiality for Goode because we believe him to be worthy to lead the hosts of the true men of our sister State, on account of his high personal character, popularity, ability and eloquence. The people of Virginia owe it to themselves, no matter who the Conservative candidate may be, to rebuke the officious intermeddling of Grant with Virginia politics by beating Grant's candidate for Governor.

A TRIBUTE TO THE DAUGH-TERS OF NORTH CAROLINA.

The Petersburg Index and Appeal, a paper by the way, that is becoming a great favorite in North Carolina, pays this deserved compliment to the literary talent of the daughters of the "Old North State:"

"The Richmond Enquirer says that the sweetest singer of sacred song in Rome is a North Carolina nun.

This instance affords us the opportunity of saying, in ordinary justice, that the ladies of North Carolina seem generally better educated and more distinguished in letters than are those of any other State of the Union. The number and character of the educational institutions of the State signify a great deal; but still more is signified by the native talent and literary aptitude of the daughters and mothers of the "Old North State." It is, indeed, strange and memorable that so many of the ladies of North Carolina have developed so much literary talent, and that so great The following extract is taken from the last Democrat, in commenting upon the commencement of its twenty-second volume:

But even at the risk of being blamed by those wose favor is so grateful and welcome to us, we are constrained to recognize the claims of the lady authors of North Carolina as reflecting peculiar honors not only on their State, but on the South, in the high sectional sentiments which they uphold; the local history which they keep fresh and memorable, and the literary reputation which, both in the lighter and more serious fields, has been attained by them."

We trust that Gen. D. H. Hill, "the uncompromising Union Editor of the Southern Home," will take no farther notice of the contemptible billingsgat and disgusting vituperation of the foulmouthed Brownlow, who has written dent Buchanan, was a defaulter to the another long letter in reply to Gen. The Odd-Fellows of Wilmington propose to excurt down the Cape Fear in a few days. Rev. G. W. Newel has tendered his resignation as pastor of the Baptist church in Wilson. In Wilmington, on Thursday last, a ferocious dog came near chawing up a small white lad. A postoffice will soon be opened at Rich & Royal's store, McDaniel's Township, Sampson county.

ga cup on the Saratoga course Tuesday. This was the great event of the meettered. Of these the two chief were the celebrated Harry Bassett and Wanderer. The prestige of the former gained him a great many backers, and nothing but the recent splendid performances of Wanderer gave him the lead in the pools. A large number of people were willing to risk their money upon Bassett on account of his superb running a year ago, confident that he could equal it after 12 months' rest and recuperation, but they were sadly disappointed. He was beaten by Joe Daniels, a horse which was counted out of the race, and the favorite, Wanderer, came in last of all. The time of the winner, 4:103, over a two mile and a quarter course, over a two mile and a quarter course, was not extraordinarily good, but the track was too heavy for fast running.

Secretary Robeson was somewhat as tonished when he learned that a New York journal had sent out a correspondent on the Tigress. Said correspondent having shipped as an ordinary seaman, in order to accompany the expedition. The Secretary says the term of enlistment is for three years, and not for the cruise in search of the Polaris alone, as many suppose. He is not disposed to act contrary in the matter, but thinks it would be a joke if the correspondent should be ordered to the Asiatic fleet or some distant station immediately upon the return of the Tigress.

Prince Jerome Napoleon has asked for restoration to his rank in the French army as General of Division. No reply has yet been given him.

The Secret Drawer. Says the Milwaukee News: "A gentleman residing on the South Side, and for many years a resident of Milwaukee, is in daily expectation of the arrival of an aunt, on a short visit, the history of whose later years surpasses anything in fiction. She was born and reared in New England, and has lived there all her lifetime, being now past sixty years of age. She was married in early life to Captain Knight, a seafearing man, and bore him sons and daughters, several of whom are living, married and comfortably settled. About sixteen years ago her husband sailed on his final voyage to Cuba, and no word from bim, his vessel or crew has ever been received since. The ship undoubtedly foun-dered and carried down all on board. Mrs. Knight struggled on a few years, reared her children, who remained home at the time of her mistortune, and, in doing so, exhausted the last remnant of property left by her husband, and finally broke down in health under the accumulated weight of 2 years, mistortune and poverty. Her youngest son, just married, furnished her a home for a short time, and then refused to shelter her longer. Her other children, each in turn, declined to burden themselves with 'mother's support, or to do anything towards procuring her a home. She finally came on the town as a pauper, and was knocked off to the lowest bidder for her support, and was for several years a poor old broken-hearted creature, unable to do

In doing this, he found in a secret drawer a paid up in insurance on Captain Knight's life for ten thousand dollars in the Ætna Life Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn. Being an honest man, and knowing Mrs. Knight's location and destitution, he hunted her up, took her to Hartford, and she actually procured the payment of the entire sum. The officers of the company informed her that her husband paid one hundred dollars as advance premium just before sailing, and that they had long been waiting for the presentation of the policy for payment. Her graceless children were not long in hearing of 'mother's' good fortune, and have been vieing with each other ever since in kind attentions to the old lady, and pressing her to come and live with them, and make their houses her home, &c., &c. She has sense enough, however, to take such professions for what they are worth, and has resolved to maintain her independence to the end of her days. The name of Mrs. Knight's nephew is known to all settlers in the Eighth ward, and is at the service of any one who doubts this statement."

MENTS. In order that the people may vote understandingly on the amendments to the Constitution, at the ensuing election, we deem it necessary to give in full the clauses in that instrument proposed to be altered, together with sonal property, to a value not exceedthe alterations themselves.

FIRST : IN RELATION TO THE PUBLIC DEBT.

The present Constitution in Article I, Declaration of Rights, provides as fol-

"Sec. 6. To maintain the honor and good faith of the State untaraished, questioned; but the State shall never assume or pay, or authorize the collection of any debt or obligation, express or implied, incurred in aid of insurrection, or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave."

This section is amended by striking out the first clause down to and including the word "but," so that the amended clause in Article I will then read:

"Sec. 6. The State shall never assume or pay, or authorize the collection of, any debt or obligation, express or implied, incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States. or any claim for the loss or emanelpation of any slave."

Another alteration in regard to the public debt is provided for in the same amendment, by striking out section 4, Article V of the present Constitution, which is as follows:

" Sec. 4. The General Assembly shall, by appropriate legislation and by adequate taxation, provide for the prompt and regular payment of the interest on the public debt, and after the year 1880, it shall lay a specific annual tax upon the real and personal property of the State, and the sum thus realized shall be set spart as a sinking fund, to be devoted to the payment of the pub

So that the above section will be entirely stricken out and the amended Constitution will not make it compulsory on the Legislature, by express language, to provide for the payment of interest and principal of the public debt.

of every ten years thereafter; and the said Senate Districts shall be so altered by the General Assembly at its first session after this Constitution shall be adopted by the people, rules of practice and procedure in accordance with the provisions of the foregoing section, and the Convention shall provide for the Commissioners a research of the convention to report to the General Assembly at its first

provisions of the foregoing section, and

The amendment proposed to this Article is to strike out all that precedes the words, "the said Senate Districts," in section 5, and to strike out the phrase "as aforesaid, or," the parts so stricken out relating to the census, so that the section as amended will read:

"Sec. 5. The said Senate Districts shall be so altered by the General As-sembly at the first session after the reshall contain, as mearly as may be, an equal number of inhabitants, excluding aliens and Indians not taxed, and shall remain unaltered until the return of another enumeration, and shall at all times consist of contiguous territory; and no county shall be divided in the formation of a Senate District, unless such county shall be agnitable and the state of the General Assembly.

"Sec. 7. No person who shall hold great value in all diseases of the Liver, Bowels and Kidneys. The object of this amendment is to do away with the unnecessary expense of taking a State census under the direction of the General Assembly, inasmuch as the same work is done by the national Government.

FOURTE: IN RELATION TO EXEMP-TIONS FROM TAXATION.

The present Constitution, Article V' Revenue and Taxation, provides as fol-

"Sec. 6. Property belonging to the State or to municipal corporations, shall be exempt from taxation. The General Assembly may exempt cemeteries, and property held for educational, scientific, literary, charitable or religious purposes; also wearing apparel, arms for muster, household and kitches furniture, the mechanical and agricultural implements for mechanical and farmers, libraments for mechanics and farmers, libraties and scientific instruments, to a value not exceeding three hundred dollars."

The amendment proposes to change this section by inserting after the word | TRESH PICKLE, CHOW CHOW "instruments," the words "or any other personal property," so that the section as amended will read :

"Sec. 6. Property belonging to the State, or to municipal corporations shall be exempt from taxation. The General Assembly may exempt cemeteries, and property held for educational, scientific, literary, charitable or religious purposes; also wearing apparel, arms for mus; ter, household and kitchen furniture, the nechanical and agricultural implements of mechanics and farmers, libraries and scientific instruments or any other pering three hundred dollars."

The present Constitution, Article IX has the following on the subject of the University at Chapel Hill:

"Sec. 5. The University of North Carolina, with its lands, emoluments and franchises, is under the control of the public debt, regularly contracted before and since the rebellion, shall be regarded as inviolable and never be school system of the State."

The amendment proposes to strike out this section entirely, thus severing the University from the common school system, and insert the following in lieu thereof, so that the amended Constitution shall read:

"Sec. 5. The General Assembly shall have power to provide for the election of trustees of the University of North Carolina, in whom when chosen shall be vested all the privileges, rights, franchi-ses and endowments heretofore in anywise granted to or conferred upon the trustees of said University; and the General Assembly may make such provisions, laws and regulations, from time to time as may be necessary and expedient for the maintenance and manage ment of said University."

The following sections of Article IX. relating to the University, are also stricken out:

Sections 13, 14 and 15, relating to the appointment of trustees by the Board of Education, and the officers powers and rights of the trustees. These matters will hereafter devolve on the Legislature, if the amendment relating to the University is ratified. SIXTH: IN RELATION TO THE SESSIONS

OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY. The present Constitution, Article II Legislative Department, provides as fol
